LABOR VOTE TO SWING TO DAVIS

New York City Trades and Labor Council Stirs Political Factions With Announcement

CLAIM ONE-FIFTH OF VOTE

Other Candidates However Go Forward With Campaign Plans—Coolidge to Speak Monday

(By United Press)
Discussion in the presidential campaign centered today around the sensational turn of affairs in New York City caused by the city trades and labor council—claiming one fifth of the strength of the American Federation of Labor—announcing withdrawal of its support of Senator LaFollette and swinging its endorsement to John W. Davis.

While politicians discussed the probable effect of this switch upon the outcome in New York City and upon the labor vote throughout the country the candidates continued their scheduled tours.

Davis, in a statement issued at New York Democratic headquarters, declared the endorsement switch meant a "break against the Republican administration" and welcomed votes of other "real progressives" in the LaFollette ranks. He spoke last night in small Long Island towns near his own neighborhood and will continue his campaign with further speeches in New York City tonight.

President Coolidge proceeded with the usual White House routine. One of the distinguished guests on his schedule is President Calles of Mexico, a prominent labor advocate. Arrangements are being made for Mr. Coolidge to deliver his final address of his campaign by radio from Washington Monday night.

Senator LaFollette in his Boston speech last night charged the administration with "imperialism," and attacked special privilege. He is on his way to Pittsburgh where he speaks tonight. His running mate, Senator Wheeler, came to Youngstown, Ohio, for a speech in the second day of his drive to conquer Ohio.

Charles G. Dawes, Republican vice presidential candidate spoke last night at St. Joseph, Mo.

The campaign expenditures investigation continued in Washington and Chicago with numerous witnesses scheduled at the request of Republicans on the stand.

Republican Chairman Butler informed President Coolidge he was assured of 345 electoral votes.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, in a speech at Brewster, N. Y., urging the navy department be investigated from top to bottom, declared "The Teapot Dome inquiry only scratched the surface."

Governor Charles W. Bryan, Davis' running mate, spoke at West Point, Neb., attacking the Dawes reparations plan as a "bankers settlement—not a settlement between nations."

Jackson At Goshen

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 31—The Republican campaign in Elkhart county was brought to a close today with two addresses by Ed Jackson, Republican nominee for governor.

Jackson was scheduled to come to Goshen this afternoon to speak at a rally after a morning speech in Columbia City, and tonight he will address a mass meeting at Elkhart.

Today's addresses will be Jackson's last appearance in northern Indiana before the election.

Speaking in South Bend last night, Jackson urged St. Joseph county voters to voice their confidence in the present administration by returning Coolidge to the White House.

Jackson received a round of cheers when he pledged himself to a reevaluation of property if he is elected to the governorship.

Harold Van Orman, candidate for lieutenant governor, spoke with Jackson at South Bend.

Goodrich Issues Challenge

Tell City, Ind., Oct. 31—James P. Goodrich, former governor of Indiana, last night challenged Dr. Carleton McCulloch, Democratic nominee for governor, to name the "unnecessary boards and commissions" he will abolish if he is elected.

GEORGE C. WYATT WAS RE-ELECTED

Chosen Again as President of Rush County Christian Church Organization

OTHER OFFICERS NAMED

Evangelist Brock of New Castle in Charge of County Conference Held at Hannagan

The County conference of the Christian churches, held at the Hannagan church near Henderson Thursday, was well attended, and only three of the 16 church congregations in the county were not represented.

George C. Wyatt of Rushville was re-elected county president. Robert Holt of the Hannagan church was elected vice-president. Isom Stevens of Rushville was the secretary-treasurer. The Young People's work was given under the supervision of Mrs. Will Bosley of Milroy, the woman's missionary division was put in charge of Mrs. Martha Grindle of this city, the educational department under Elmer Hutchinson of Arlington and the Bible school division under Mr. Stoten, of Center.

At the business session it also was voted by the county officers to hold the meeting next October at the Main street Christian church in Rushville.

A resolutions committee also reported before the session adjourned, in which complimentary remarks were made concerning the entertainment by the host church, and for the program rendered by the various speakers.

Miss Jane Brewer of Mexico was the speaker on missionaries instead of Mr. Holyrod who was to speak on his work in the foreign field.

Evangelist Brock of Newcastle was in charge of the county conference, and the other speakers were there for the all day sessions.

A short memorial service was also held for Mrs. Marshall Heaton of Walker township, who died this week, and who was an active member of the Christian church.

TRIP TO JAIL IS PROMISED

Halloween Celebrations Must Not Include Destructiveness

Police will be on the watch-out tonight for persons destroying property as a part of the Halloween celebration. Much complaint was received last night from premature celebrations, and the police force tonight will be instructed by Police Chief Blackburn to arrest any boy found destroying property. The police chief stated today that he would tell the police to put the boys in jail for the night, and an appeal to parents was made, asking that they pass the word along to the youngsters.

Police will not be over bearing in seeing that the young people have a good time, but property destruction will not be tolerated, the chief said.

A. A. G. GIRLS IN CHARGE OF 'TAG DAY' SATURDAY

Organized Into Teams to Solicit Funds for Salvation Army on Streets Saturday

APPROVED BY MAYOR THOMAS

The A. A. G. Girls of the Rushville high school will sell tags Saturday for the benefit of the Salvation Army home service campaign which is in progress this week. The "Tag Day" was decided upon because it appears that the quota for the next twelve months, approximately $2,000, will not be raised by public subscription.

Mayor Walter R. Thomas, who is general chairman for the campaign, announced that he had approved the plan for "Tag Day" and urged people who had not been solicited to support it.

The fraternal committee, composed of Mark Purcell, S. L. Trabue, Frank Melvaine and G. P. Hunt, has asked for an extension of time because it is impossible to make the appeal to all of the lodges in one week, due to their meeting dates being different.

The girls for "Tag Day" have been divided into teams as follows: Morning—Alice Brown, chairman, Judith Mauzy, Mildred Casady, Mary L. Beale, Dorothy Ruzeinstein, Margaret Lambert, Jean Craig, Margaret Winslow and Alice Hilbert.

Afternoon—Dorothy Conner, chairman, Wilma Blackburn, Opal Estes, Kathryn Northam, Annette Offutt, Frances Leach, Ruby Hires, Gertrude Miller and Marjorie Crim. Evening—Florence Hughes, chairman, Christina Bebout, Gladys Newman, Rosalyn Moore, Betty Innis, Ruth Chadwick, Mary Helen Elder, Wilma Hunt and Helen Price.

FIRST IN ATTENDANCE

County agent H. D. VanMatre has received an engraved certificate from the Indiana State fair in which Rush county is set out as winning first place in division 14 for attendance at the state fair last September. SAY THEY ARE NOT MEMBERS OF KLAN

Three Election Inspectors Make Statement Due to Inference Drawn from Newspaper Story

POSITION OF COMMISSIONERS

Declare Articles About Removal of Inspectors Were Incorrect as Records Showed None Appointed

Three election inspectors appointed by the county board of commissioners last Tuesday, who by inference might be thought to be members of the Ku Klux Klan as the result of the news story published in the Daily Republican last Wednesday, today announced that they were not now members of the Ku Klux Klan and never had been.

They were William S. McKee, precinct No. 2, Noble township; Jesse Henley, precinct No. 3, Ripley township, and W. A. Alexander, precinct No. 5, Rushville township.

The inference was based on the printed statement of the republican county chairman before the board that the commissioners were taking off every inspector who was not a klansman. The county chairman said he meant that it was apparent that the commissioners were appointing only inspectors who were klansmen, with few exceptions, in places of those he recommended.

In the list of twelve inspectors printed Wednesday, who were said to have been removed by the commissioners, appeared the name of Lewis J. Newhouse in precinct No. 2, Washington township. It should have been Ed Aiken, who should have been inspector by virtue of his office as township trustee, but who could not serve legally because his brother is a candidate on the democratic state ticket.

The members of the county board of commissioners, George Bell, Harry Gosnell and Jesse Winkler, today contended that the articles in Tuesday's and Wednesday's issues of the Republican regarding the alleged removal of inspectors were incorrect because no inspectors had never been appointed.

The contention as to whether the election inspectors were appointed at the September session of the board is based on a technicality. The commissioners say that they were not. The county auditor, Phil Wilk, understood that they were.

The permanent record of the commissioners' sessions show that they were not. Attorneys were consulted today and they say that the law pro-

POLITICAL ADS, NO SIGNATURES

Democrats Accused of Expending Money in Campaign Without Designating The Source

G. B. BAKER MAKES STATEMENT

Republican Publicity Manager Says All G. O. P. Advertisements Contain a Signature

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 31—Democrats have spent large sums of money in advertising that do not carry the signatures of the democratic national committee, G. B. Baker, director of Publicity for the Republican National committee testified at the senate campaign "slush fund" here today.

Baker exhibited a full page advertisement from a woman's magazine, which he said cost $7,600 per issue. Baker declared that all direct advertising by the republican committee carries the republican signature.

Attorney Samuel Untermyer, representing Senator LaFollette, cross examined Baker in an effort to determine what part of the republican committee played in the independent advertising campaign being carried out by republican organizations not identified with the National committee.

Charges that coercion was used by L. E. Shepard, president of the Brotherhood of Order of railroad conductors to swing railroad men to support the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket were made by Weymouth Kirkland attorney for the Republican National committee.

The republican campaign fund to date totals approximately $3,550,000. W. V. Hodges, national treasurer, estimated. This he said is the gross figure and includes $750,000 returned to the various state organizations for use in the senatorial and congressional campaigns and other work.

The Chicago case of the hearing adjourned at noon today subject to call probably in Washington after election.

ANY WOMAN, any man, can now have a well-developed face and form. The whole, simple secret of a well-developed form is in the number of blood-cells in your body. You can now forget all the theoretical talk about diet, exercise, fat treatments, food-fats and fat-foods. Nothing is of any use, after all, except blood-cells!

Thin, run-down men and women, with bony necks, sunken cheeks, bony shoulders—all these are suffering from one thing—too few blood-cells. Science has proved that S.S.S. helps to make the rich red blood-cells, which you need. Your blood is starving for these new blood-cells! Give your blood the blood-cells it needs—take S.S.S. the great scientific blood-cell maker. S.S.S. has done marvels, too, in making beautiful complexions, clearing the skin, making lips rosy red, the cheeks full and plump—because it rids the blood of impurities which cause pimples, blackheads, acne, blotches, eczema, tetter, rash and rheumatism, too. As the medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable, it may be taken with perfect safety. This is why S.S.S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women a plus in their strength. Start taking S.S.S. today and your great problem, that of your personal appearance, can be solved.

vides for the appointment of election inspectors by the county board of commissioners at the September session of the board.

As has been the custom here for many years, the county chairman of the majority party, which in this instance is Glen Miller, republican chairman, filed his recommendations for election inspectors in the auditor's office before the September meeting of the board. In making the notes of the meeting, the auditor said registration inspectors and left out the word, "election." When the permanent record was made, the word "election" was left out, but the inspectors were copied on the permanent record from the list recommended by Mr. Miller, according to the county auditor.

It was his opinion and is now that the election inspectors were being appointed at that time. He inserted the word "election" in the record and the commissioners objected afterwards and it was erased by him, Mr. Wilk says.

The commissioners say that they did not offer to make a compromise in the case of L. A. Wagoner of Orange township, as stated in Tuesday's Republican, by placing him on as judge. He was recommended for inspector by Mr. Miller.

Another complaint of the commissioners is that by inference the impression was left that Harry Gosnell and George Bell took from the auditor's office papers which had been filed and which should properly have been filed in the auditor's office.

The Republican's information came from Mr. Wilk, the county auditor. A reporter was not present when the alleged petitions for removal of L. A. Wagoner of Orange township and Will Arnold of Washington township as election inspectors were presented, but Mr. Wilk said that when he went to make up the records following the meeting, they could not be found. He further stated that he called both Harry Gosnell and George Bell and they both said they had the petitions and would return them to the auditor's office.

The commissioners assert that twelve inspectors were not "beheaded" because none were ever legally appointed until last Tuesday.

Wednesday's issue of the Republican said that the commissioners offered to compromise with the republican county chairman. They deny this and Mr. Miller says that it was he who offered the compromise. The meeting was behind closed doors and those on the outside thought from Mr. Miller's remarks that a compromise had been offered by the board.

The commissioners declare the statement in the Republican of Wednesday that they did not deny the charge that twelve inspectors were being removed because they did not belong to the Ku Klux Klan, was false. The Republican was informed that they did not deny it on one occasion, but the commissioners say that they did deny the accusation when it was first made.

Wednesday's republican said the election laws provide the inspectors shall be appointed by the county commissioners upon recommendation of the county chairman of the party which received the most votes at the last election. This was incorrect in that the commissioners do not have to follow the recommendations of the county chairman. It has been the custom here for years, however, to follow this plan.

It was also said Wednesday that there was a list of precinct inspectors on file in the auditor's office and at the head of the list it is stated that they are appointed for registration and election. It should have said "recommended" instead of appointed. The commissioners also claim no error was made in transcribing the record because it was not intended to appoint election inspectors at the September session.

The commissioners claim that the "decapitation" of inspectors was not arranged before hand, as stated in Wednesday's paper, and that it did not take place, on the theory that they were never appointed.

The statement listing the twelve inspectors said to have been appointed in September, as having been removed, which appeared in Wednesday's Republican, is also said to be incorrect by the commissioners.

The Truth About the Inspectors

In order to correct a false impression created by erroneous statements and published articles concerning the appointment of inspectors for the general election, the undersigned, George Bell, Harry Gosnell and Jesse Winkler, who are paying for this advertisement, desire to submit the following statement:

"In the matter of registration, the Board made appointments for registration on recommendation of county chairman as follows:

(Then follows a list of names for each of the precincts of the county.)"

The Board at its first meeting in October signed the record as above made and the attention of Phil Wilk himself, who presented the record to the Board of Commissioners, was at that time called to the fact that the appointments were for registration only.

At a meeting which was held on the 15th day of October, 1924, the question was raised about the appointment of inspectors and the Auditor stated that such appointments had been made, and upon the record being produced it was found that the record had been altered subsequent to the signing of the record as follows: The word "registration" in the line "In the matter of registration" had been marked through and above it had been written, in ink, the word "election." The word "registration" in the sentence, "The Board made appointments for registration on recommendation," etc., had two lines drawn through it and above it had been written, in ink, "inspector election."

Mr. Phil Wilk was openly accused by the Board of having changed the record without authorization and was again informed that it was not the intention of the Board to appoint all the men named as inspectors of election, and thereupon Mr. Wilk erased from the record, in the presence of the Board, the words which he had illegally and without right inserted.

As no inspectors had been appointed at the September Term by the Board of Commissioners, and the law provides that one week prior to the time of the general election all vacancies in list of inspectors shall be filled by the Board, this day was on the 28th of October, 1924, and was the day on which inspectors were appointed.

In The Daily Republican, in a published article, dated Tuesday, October 28th, 1924, it is stated that certain petitions could not be found and the impression is left that Harry Gosnell and George Bell each had taken papers from the office of the County Auditor, which should be there on file. It is true that Mr. Gosnell presented a paper containing objections to the appointment of one of the inspectors and George Bell also presented written objections to the appointment of another inspector, and in each case the County Auditor refused to receive the papers for filing and threw them back respectively to Mr. Gosnell and Mr. Bell, and told each of them that he would not receive them. Such papers were never filed with the Auditor and when it was learned at the meeting on the afternoon of the 15th of October, 1924, that the inspectors could not be appointed until the 28th day of October, 1924, and the Auditor having refused to file them, these objections were taken away by each of these men. If the papers had been filed they would have been left on file with the County Auditor and any imputation that either of these men was taking away or destroying papers which should be on file in the Auditor's office is false and slanderous.

On the first day of September, 1924, at the September Term of the Board of Commissioners, Phil Wilk, Auditor of Rush County, presented to the Board what was explained to be a recommendation for appointment of inspectors of registration. The Board did not see and examine the paper itself. The Board took action as shown by the following record:

It is further stated in the article of October 28th, in The Daily Republican, that the Republican County Chairman, in substance recommended the appointment of the inspectors "as he was entitled to do under the law." Such is not the law as there is no provision of the law whatever that entitles any county chairman to recommend to the Board of County Commissioners who shall be appointed as inspectors, nor is there any provision for a man appearing before the Board of County Commissioners with his attorney and insisting that he should be named as an inspector by the Board or reasons given by the Board as to why he should not be so named.

It is further stated in The Daily Republican, under date of October 28th, that "The County Auditor produced the original copy of the list of the names of men recommended by the Republican County Chairman, to act as inspectors in the 'registration and election.' In making up the record the Auditor's clerk neglected to follow the petition closely and put in the word 'election' but the original petition, etc." It is not true that the Auditor's clerk neglected in making up her record to put in the word "election" for as has been shown above the word "election" nowhere appeared in the record as originally made and only appeared when it had been written in by Mr. Wilk himself without any authority whatever after the record had been signed.

In The Daily Republican of the issue of Wednesday, October 29th, appears the caption:

"Twelve Inspectors are Beheaded--Decapitation takes place at county commissioners' meeting despite protests of many"

This heading is misleading and does not state the truth for the reason that no inspector was removed as no inspectors were appointed until the 28th day of October, 1924, and no change has been made in the list then named. There were very few present who protested against any man selected by the Board and among them were those whom it had been rumored were not supporting but actively opposing certain of the Republican Ticket, and those who threatened George Bell that if he did not make the appointments it would lose him five hundred votes.

It is stated in the article of Wednesday, October 29th, that "The Board of Commissioners called Glen Miller into closed session and offered to compromise but that he refused." Such statement is absolutely false as there was no offer of compromise on the part of the Board of County Commissioners, there being nothing to compromise and Mr. Miller was called in merely to see if he had any objections to any of the men proposed to be appointed by the Board and made no objections to any men suggested. Mr. Miller did say to the Board at the morning meeting that he would like to compromise as it would put him in bad if recommendations were not carried out.

It is further stated in the article of The Daily Republican, of Wednesday, October 29th, 1924, that, "the election laws provide that the inspectors shall be appointed by the County Commissioners upon recommendation of the County Chairman of the party which received the most votes at the last election." Such is not the law as has been shown, there being no provision for the recommendation of anyone being received by the Board of County Commissioners in the appointment of inspectors of general election.

It is further stated in the article in The Daily Republican, on Wednesday, October 29th, 1924, as follows:

"There is on file in the Auditor's Office a list of precinct inspectors and at the head of the list it is stated that they are appointed for registration and election." There is no such appointment on record as the appointments could only be made by the Board of County Commissioners and were never made and all that appears anywhere of record is a paper which purports to be a recommendation of Glen Miller for the appointment of inspectors for registration and election, and which, as late as October 30th, 1924, had no file mark on it.

It is further stated in the same article that "Those who were removed by the Commissioners after having been appointed for registration and election at the September Session are as follows: (Then follows a list of names.)" As it has been shown there could be no removal of anyone as there had been no appointment.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1924

Safe steps:—The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way. Psalm 37: 23.

Prayer:—O God, Thou only art good. Do Thou enable us to live by faith, and then Thy goodness will extend to us, and our way by Thy way.

The Daily Republican has been complimented by many people and congratulated from many sources for sponsoring the appearance of the United States Marine band in Rushville.

Although appreciating that it was a big undertaking, the Republican felt obligated, as a disseminator of news and as a newspaper which stands for the best interests of the county and the highest standards of music, to guarantee the two concerts by the band, even though there was prospect of a loss.

Though a failure financially, the band concerts were a splendid success from a cultural standpoint.
Scores of people have sent word to the Daily Republican that they appreciated very much the opportunity of hearing the band and that they regarded it a service to the community to provide music of this character for the people, especially the school children, to hear.

The Daily Republican is under an everlasting obligation to the women who, as members of the Rush County Child Welfare association, worked unfiringly to make the concerts a financial success by canvassing the county to sell tickets. Likewise, the Boy Scouts worked diligently in the sale of tickets, with the hopes of realizing something for their organization.

It is a source of deep regret on the part of the Republican that not enough tickets were sold to leave a balance for these two organizations.
They entered into the project with the hope of making something for their work and very naturally they will be disappointed.

The fact that the Republican will have to stand a loss of about $500, not taking into account the advertising that was done in this newspaper, is not of as much moment as the fact that the worthy charitable organization and the Scouts will not realize anything as the fruits of their labor.

There is great satisfaction to be found, however, even in spite of the discouraging outcome, that many people appreciated the effort that was made by the Daily Republican and these two organizations to offer the people of Rush county something worth while.

Capt. William H. Santelmann, director of the band, complimented the agencies back of the project very highly, and said that the attempt to bring an attraction of this magnitude to a city this size was deserving of great praise.

He stated that within his memory, the appearance of the band had never but once before been sponsored by a newspaper. The only other instance on record was in New York City when The World was the sponsor at the dedication of an immense bandstand, and the Marine band played.
The audience at that time numbered 45,000 people. Furthermore, Capt.
Santelmann said that Rushville was the smallest city in which the band had appeared on its present tour.

Brookhart's Defection

Senator Brookhart has bolted the Republican party and gone over to the side of LaFollette. His antagonism to Gen. Dawes is given as a reason. Why this change so late in the campaign? The records of both Coolidge and Dawes have been open books, and long before either was nominated the people knew exactly on what sort of a platform he would stand. There have been no new developments respecting either of the men. Both have emphasized well known Republican principles and dwelt on the achievements of the Republican administration. By no act or word of Gen. Dawes has the public been given any reason for altering its first impression of the man. The real excuse for the Brookhart defection must be found in the unsound doctrines advocated by the LaFollette forces, for which the Senator has always exhibited a marked sympathy.

But the loss of Brookhart to the Republican cause is fully compensated by the thousands of conservative Democrats who have rallied to Coolidge. The willingness of Davis to stultify himself for political ends is apparent. In accepting the astonishing testimony before the Senate committees as proof of dishonesty in Republican circles, he outraged his own sense of decency and value of evidence. In personally naming Mr.
Bryan as his running mate, he offended his own ideas of sound government and alienated many thousands of voters who would have supported him had the vice presidential nominee been a man of his own reputed character. In the manifest play of the Davis managers to throw the election into the House and into control of the radical balance of power in Congress, every conservative voter is challenged. He must decide between Coolidge and common sense on the one hand and dictation by LaFollette on the other.

It Makes a Difference

It is not uncommon for people to remark that "it makes no difference what others think."

But it does make a difference—a big difference.

A community is a collection of people.

This country is a collection of cities, towns, villages and surrounding countryside.

This country is nothing more than a collection of sovereign states welded together in a single and central government for their own protection and advancement.

The government is despondent upon the states, the states are dependent upon their cities, towns and rural sections, and all of these divisions are dependent upon the people, in whose hands rests the future of them all.

So it does make a difference what others think, because upon their thoughts, which is the basis for their actions, depends whatever course the nation will take.

If you and the "other people" think constructively and always have in mind the interests of your community, you will be better citizens, which is the only way the local community, the state and the nation can keep on advancing.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Pennsylvania re-establishes her right to the title of the "Keystone State" by the testimony of her big business men who appeared before the Borah campaign fund investigating committee.

The statement that business men of eastern Pennsylvania alone had chipped in $365,000 to the G. O. P. war chest prior to Oct. 15, or one-fifth the sum Chairman Butler said had been received by the Republican National Committee to that date, revealed this rock-ribbed Republican commonwealth as the biggest real support of the party's campaign structure.

A study of how Pennsylvania Republicans handle their campaign financial job, however, soon shows the reason for their success.

Financing the party's campaign is more than a political matter to them. It is a business matter. So the job is handled, not by politicians, but by business men, operating on a systematic business basis.

Instead of an array of political henchmen, whose first interest is in politics, the parade of witnesses from Pennsylvania consisted exclusively of business men who for business reasons want the Republican regime continued and who set about in a business-like way to help accomplish that result.

TAKE Joseph B. Grundy, in charge of Republican collection activities outside Pennsylvania's "Pittsburgh District."

Grundy runs a big wool carding and yarn spinning business at Bristol, Pa. The "turnover" of his business last year was some $5,000,000.

When he set about the raising of campaign funds, he went after it just as he would have gone after more profits for his own business. He didn't go out and demand money. He didn't try the usual political hold-up game. Instead, he put on a systematic "selling campaign."

If he could sell his wares, convince the buyers that his Republican line of goods was all wool and a yard wide, he felt as certain that the cash would follow as that profits would follow additional favor established for his own factory's output.

SO through a series of selling letters, extolling the merits of Republican protection, Coolidge calmness and general G. O.
P. dependability, he built up, in a straight business way, a potential market for his political ticket.

When this had been done, and not till then, he went after the cash. And the way it rolled in proved business acumen as valuable in politics as in merchandising.

After Grundy's "selling" letters, persons who were asked to come across didn't consider that they were being asked to dig up something for nothing, but that they were buying a very definite and tangibly valuable article for their money—four years more of Republican "good times," protective tariffs and "safety."

GRUNDY on the witness stand typified prosperity and success. Plump-jowled, pink-checked, immaculately well groomed, he was himself the picture of business prosperity.

To questionings by Senator Caraway as to the extent he himself and other financial contributors in his state had benefited by special tariff provisions enacted by the G. O. P., he returned soft-voiced, placating answers.

Yes, he had long been interested in tariff legislation. He had made many trips to Washington in the past 20 years in connection with tariff schedules, particularly tariffs on wool and woollens. Yes, these tariffs had been a big help; they had brought employment and good wages to thousands of textile workers and hundreds of mill towns.

Similarly, the testimony of Nathan Falwell, who "took care of the weavers by taking money away from them," as Caraway put it; of Vauclain, Statesbury, Atterbury and other Pennsylvania "big business" men all revealed that in the Keystone State politics is no mere business for politicians but a live and active field for real business men.

MILROY TO BE OPPONENT

Rushville Schedule to Play up There January 2—Other Games on Carthage Schedule

There will be a big time in Carthage tonight. The new high school gymnasium, regarded as the best of its kind in Rush county, will be dedicated with a basketball game between the Carthage and Milroy high schools.

The new gymnasium is a part of the new high school annex that was built during the past season. It has a seating capacity of fifteen hundred, and a playing floor that cannot be equalled in Rush county.

Carthage is expecting to entertain the largest crowd at a basketball game in its history, when the doors are thrown open tonight, as it will also afford an opportunity for people to inspect the place.

The Carthage prospects this year are for a winning team, and with the new gym, it will mean much encouragement. The schedule has been completed, and Rushville is found twice on their card, with one game at Carthage and one here.

Edwin B. Heifner is coach of the team this year. He is a former Muncie state normal player. He has two regulars from last year, Renegar at back guard and Siler who will play floor guard. Tetrick is a new man at center, and the likely forwards will be Heim, Alexander and Pierson. The reserve material is very light.

The complete schedule for Carthage is as follows:

Oct. 31—With Milroy
Nov. 7—With Arlington
Nov. 14—At Spiceland
Nov. 21—At Manila
Nov. 26—With Spiceland
Nov. 29—At Morristown
Dec. 12—At Cumberland
Dec. 13—At Moscow
Dec. 19—With Raleigh
Jan. 2—With Rushville
Jan. 10—Carthage tourney.
Jan. 16—With Milroy.
Jan. 23—At Knightstown
Jan. 30-31—County tourney, Rushville

Princeton—The varsity continued their drill in various methods of stopping the Harvard attack as displayed in the Crimson's game with Dartmouth. Ted Williams ran the team in a long signal drill and will probably pilot the varsity in tomorrow's game with Swarthmore.

Cambridge—Harvard held no practice yesterday, the men all attending the funeral services of Percy Haughton. Second string men will be used against Boston U tomorrow.

I. U. PRACTICES ON CHANGES IN RULES OPPONENTS FIELD WILL BE APPARENT

Limbers up and Runs Through Signals on Northwestern Field For
The Game Saturday

TEAM SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Better Punting by the Backs Shows Advancement of About 45 Yards in the Practices

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 31—A short signal practice and limbering up drill on the Northwestern field at Evanston this afternoon completed Coach Ingram's preparations of the Indiana University football squad for the game with Northwestern tomorrow. Both teams have suffered defeat in their only Western Conference contests this season and will be fighting to get out of the cellar position.

A special car containing the Indiana players, accompanied by the coaches, managers and trainers, left Bloomington at midnight Thursday for Evanston. Student rooters will follow the gridders by rail and auto this afternoon and tonight.

Better punting by the backs, Coach Ingram expects to bolster up that department of the game which was noticeably weak in the Chicago game. Marks and Abel have each been averaging 45 yards in their practice kicks while Salmi and Ruman have been consistently kicking 50 yards.

Captain Joe Sloate may be in the starting lineup tomorrow, as his work in the scrimmages with the freshmen eleven this past week has been of an excellent nature. If Sloate is started the backfield likely will consist of Lorber, Marks and Salmi in addition. This will leave Stevens, Zivich, Ruman and Abel as the second string backfield with Moomaw, Smith and Tobin also in reserve.

Pureha and Sibley are slated to start on the two end positions with Niness and George Fisher filling the two tackle berths. Coach Ingram will have as reliable substitutes for the wing positions: Woodward, Nessel, Scott, Fisher and Cushman. Carstens and McCool likely will get the first call at the tackle positions. Springer and Bernoske will start at the guard positions with Wilson and Walver Fisher capable reserves. Stew Butler will fill the pivot position for the Hoosiers with Dykhuizen and Kelso as reserve centers.

Members of the freshmen squad will spend Saturday acquainting themselves with Ohio plays and formations to use against the varsity in scrimmage next week. The Crimson regulars will leave for Columbus for the Ohio State game next Friday morning.

Ann Arbor—The badly crippled Navy team went through an unusually peppy practice in their last workout before the Penn State game. Stolz left tackle, bolstered up the line with his return after a week's lay off and will probably start the game tomorrow.

Fans Urged Not to be Hasty in Criticizing Officials in Opening Game
Tonight

A NEW TECHNICAL FOUL

No Limit Put on Number of Overtime Periods to Settle Tie—Rule on Tie Ball

Several changes in the basketball rules will be noticeable tonight when the Rushville high school takes on Hopewell for the opening game of the season here, and basketball fans are urged to remember that the officials are acquainted with the rules, and should not be too hasty in passing judgment.

The officials for the game tonight will be Parker acting as referee and Morrison on the side lines acting as umpire. The selection of the positions that the officials should occupy was made by the visiting team.

Among the new rules this year is a technical foul for a player to touch the ball as it goes up between two players. In the past the game was frequently delayed by a player striking the ball as it went up, and under the new rules the player will be fouled.

Another new rule is that in case of a tie at the end of the regular session, the tie must be played off in overtime periods. The old rule limited the overtime periods to two five minute sessions, but most schools in Indiana always played off the game regardless of the number, so this rule will not materially affect the rules.

The rule concerning personal contact among players also will be enforced this year, according to a suggestion made by the I. H. S. A. A. In the past some referees have neglected to call a tie ball or foul when two players have body contact with each other. Guarding from the rear is also a foul.

Another rule this year that will probably meet the approval of fans is the one pertaining to a tie ball. The ball must be held firmly by two or more players before the officials can call it a tie ball for a toss up. This rule will eliminate much of the whistle blowing by referees who stop the play many times when two players get close together. Under this rule, the two players must actually have possession of the ball. The change in rules will give the players a chance to keep the ball moving.

Another change pertains to a substitute who is placed in the game. The new rule sets out that the substitute must not only be sent in, but he also must actually play after being sent into the game.

This rule in the past has been used by a coach to take out a valuable player for two minutes to give him coaching, and before the two minutes were up send the regular back in, and all the time the team had been taking time out.

The change will make it necessary for the substitute to start the play, and then if the coach wants to send the regular back in, it will be necessary for the team to call time out again, thus charging two time out periods against the team, instead of the one time out, as in the past.

The rule also says this year that the players shall have numbers on the back of their jerseys, and these numbers must be at least 6 inches high, and made of material at least an inch wide.

There is another rule regarding the dribble. If a player has possession of the ball, and spins around on one foot, he either has to start dribbling or else pass it. If he starts to dribble, he must do so before taking a step. If he wishes to pass the ball to another player, he is allowed to take the customary one step with the other foot.

Hopewell will be here tonight at 7:30, according to advance word, and the game will be started between 8:15 and 8:30.

Urbana—"Red" Grange has a cold. Wallie Melvain has a broken hand. Despite these circumstances, which might cramp "Red's" style with his interference man out, the Illini were confident today that Iowa will fall.

South Bend—With several regulars still handicapped by injuries, coach Rockne abandoned heavy work for the squad yesterday to give the various members of the team a chance to return to normalcy before stacking up against Georgia Tech.

Saturday Big Day on Gridiron

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Oct. 31—With all the interesting and exciting preliminary formalities ended last week, the football season will get into heavy action tomorrow with a schedule filled with a flock of banner attractions. With the exception of a very few games, where varsity teams are taking a rest before a severe test next week, every game on the schedule rates as a feature attraction. Hundreds of thousands of fans will fill to capacity all the great stadiums of the country.

Ranking as the feature game of the schedule because of its spectacular trimmings and its promise of hard, if not perfect football, is the Army-Yale game at New Haven. For the third time the game will fill the huge Yankee bowl to its capacity of 75,000. The demand for tickets was so great that all the tickets were sold more than two weeks ago and none were offered to the public.

After visiting the West, seeing Western football and hearing Western football fans, it seems a waste

TOURNEY FOR BOXERS WILL BE HELD SOON

Six Nominated so Far to Participate In Event to Decide Successor to Dundee

AS THE NATIONAL CHAMP

New York, Oct. 31—Six leading American featherweights have been nominated by the New York boxing commission to compete in an elimination tournament to decide the winner of the world's championship which was vacated by Johnny Dundee, who resigned because he could no longer make the weight.

The selections of the commission were: Louis Kaplan, Mesiden, Conn.; Danny Kramer, Philadelphia, Lew Paulse, Salt Lake City, Jose Lombardo, Panama; Mike Dundee, Rock Island, Ill.; and Bobby Garcia, Camp Holabird, Md.

The commission proposed that the boxers be paired by a drawing out of a hat and that the first series be held in Madison Square Garden on November 21.

The commission also announced that the lightweight elimination to determine a challenger for Benny Leonard has been temporarily abandoned as no promoter could be found to put on the series.

ALONG SIDELINES

Evanston—"Navy Bill" Ingram was to lead his Indiana football team to the Purple gridiron today for a light workout preceding Northwestern's signal drill late today in preparation for the meeting of the two teams tomorrow.

Chicago—Defensive practice, especially aerial drill comprised final Maroon intensive preparations for Purdue.

Lafayette—Twenty-four football players and two cripples entrained today for Chicago where the Boiler-makers clash tomorrow in the annual contest with the Maroons. Bahr and Bolan were the cripples but Coach Phelan took them along.

Columbus—The length of the drill made up for what Ohio's practice session lacked in hard work, and Coach Wilce, was satisfied the team was in top shape for Wooster tomorrow.

Minneapolis—Michigan and Minnesota both were to run through light signal drill here today. Michigan brought its traditional luck-piece—a rejuvenated Wisconsin team—the little brown jug—when it arrived last night.

Madison—With several regulars still out and radical shifts in the lineup completed, Coach Ryan drove through a gruelling practice in preparation for the Notre Dame tilt November 8. Captain Harris played at right tackle.

LABOR VOTE TO SWING TO DAVIS

New York City Trades and Labor Council Stirs Political Factions With Announcement

CLAIM ONE-FIFTH OF VOTE

Other Candidates However Go Forward With Campaign Plans—Coolidge to Speak Monday

(By United Press)
Discussion in the presidential campaign centered today around the sensational turn of affairs in New York City caused by the city trades and labor council—claiming one fifth of the strength of the American Federation of Labor—announcing withdrawal of its support of Senator LaFollette and swinging its endorsement to John W. Davis.

While politicians discussed the probable effect of this switch upon the outcome in New York City and upon the labor vote throughout the country the candidates continued their scheduled tours.

Davis, in a statement issued at New York Democratic headquarters, declared "the endorsement switch meant a 'break against the Republican administration' and welcomed votes of other 'real progressives' in the LaFollette ranks. He spoke last night in small Long Island towns near his own neighborhood and will continue his campaign with further speeches in New York City tonight.

President Coolidge proceeded with the usual White House routine. One of the distinguished guests on his schedule is President Calles of Mexico, a prominent labor advocate.

Senator LaFollette in his Boston speech last night charged the administration with "imperialism" and attacked special privilege. He is on his way to Pittsburgh where he speaks tonight. His running mate, Senator Wheeler, came to Youngstown, Ohio, for a speech in the second day of his drive to conquer Ohio.

Charles G. Dawes, Republican vice presidential candidate spoke last night at St. Joseph, Mo.

The campaign expenditures investigation continued in Washington and Chicago with numerous witnesses scheduled at the request of Republicans on the stand.

Republican Chairman Butler informed President Coolidge he was assured of 345 electoral votes.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, in a speech at Brewster, N. Y., urging the navy department be investigated from top to bottom, declared "The Teapot Dome inquiry only scratched the surface."

Governor Charles W. Bryan, Davis' running mate, spoke at West Point, Neb., attacking the Dawes reparations plan as a "bankers settlement—not a settlement between nations."

Jackson At Goshen
Goshen, Ind., Oct. 31—The Republican campaign in Elkhart county was brought to a close today with two addresses by Ed Jackson, Republican nominee for governor.

Jackson was scheduled to come to Goshen this afternoon to speak at a rally after a morning speech in Columbia City, and tonight he will address a mass meeting at Elkhart.

Today's addresses will be Jackson's last appearance in northern Indiana before the election.

Speaking in South Bend last night, Jackson urged St. Joseph county voters to voice their confidence in the present administration by returning Coolidge to the White House.

Jackson received a round of cheers when he pledged himself to a reevaluation of property if he is elected to the governorship.

Harold Van Orman, candidate for lieutenant governor, spoke with Jackson at South Bend.

Goodrich Issues Challenge
Tell City, Ind., Oct. 31—James P. Goodrich, former governor of Indiana, last night challenged Dr. Carleton McCulloch, Democratic nominee for governor, to name the "unnecessary boards and commissions" he will abolish if he is elected.

GEORGE C. WYATT WAS RE-ELECTED

Chosen Again as President of Rush County Christian Church Organization

Evangelist Brock of New Castle in Charge of County Conference Held at Hannagan

The County conference of the Christian churches, held at the Hannagan church near Henderson Thursday, was well attended, and only three of the 16 church congregations in the county were not represented.

George C. Wyatt of Rushville was re-elected county president Robert Holt of the Hannagan church was elected vice-president, Isom Stevens of Rushville was the secretary-treasurer, the Young People's work was given under the supervision of Mrs. Will Bosley of Milroy, the woman's missionary division was put in charge of Mrs. Martha Grindle of this city, the educational department under Elmer Hutchinson of Arlington and the Bible school division under Mr. Stoten, of Center.

At the business session it also was voted by the county officers to hold the meeting next October at the Main street Christian church in Rushville.

A resolutions committee also reported before the session adjourned, in which complimentary remarks were made concerning the entertainment by the host church, and for the program rendered by the various speakers.

Miss Jane Brewer of Mexico was the speaker on missionaries instead of Mr. Holtyrod who was to speak on his work in the foreign field.

Evangelist Brock of Newcastle was in charge of the county conference, and the other speakers were there for the all day sessions.

A short memorial service was also held for Mrs. Marshall Heaton of Walker township, who died this week, and who was an active member of the Christian church.

TRIP TO JAIL IS PROMISED

Halloween Celebrations Must Not Include Destructiveness

Police will be on the watch-out tonight for persons destroying property as a part of the Halloween celebration. Much complaint was received last night from premature celebrations, and the police force tonight will be instructed by Police Chief Blackburn to arrest any boy found destroying property. The police chief stated today that he would tell the police to put the boys in jail for the night, and an appeal to parents was made, asking that they pass the word along to the youngsters.

Police will not be over bearing in seeing that the young people have a good time, but property destruction will not be tolerated, the chief said.

A. A. G. GIRLS IN CHARGE OF 'TAG DAY' SATURDAY

Organized into Teams to Solicit Funds for Salvation Army on Streets Saturday

APPROVED BY MAYOR THOMAS

The A. A. G. Girls of the Rushville high school will sell tags Saturday for the benefit of the Salvation Army home service campaign which is in progress this week. The "Tag Day" was decided upon because it appears that the quota for the next twelve months, approximately $2,000, will not be raised by public subscription.

Mayor Walter R. Thomas, who is general chairman for the campaign, announced that he had approved the plan for "Tag Day" and urged people who had not been solicited to support it.

The fraternal committee, composed of Mark Purcell, S. L. Trabue, Frank McIlwain and G. P. Hunt, has asked for an extension of time because it is impossible to make the appeal to all of the lodges in one week, due to their meeting dates being different.

The girls for "Tag Day" have been divided into teams as follows: Morning—Alice Brown, chairman, Judith Maury, Mildred Casady, Mary L. Beale, Dorothy Rugenstein, Margaret Lambert, Jean Craig, Margaret Winslow and Alice Hilbert.

Afternoon—Dorothy Conner, chairman, Wilma Blackburn, Opal Estes, Kathryn Northam, Annette Offutt, Frances Leach, Ruby Hires, Gertrude Miller and Marjorie Crim. Evening—Florence Hughes, chairman, Christina Bebout, Gladys Newman, Rosalyn Moore, Betty Innis, Ruth Chadwick, Mary Helen Elder, Wilma Hunt and Helen Price.

FIRST IN ATTENDANCE

County agent H. D. VanMatre has received an engraved certificate from the Indiana State fair in which Rush county is set out as winning first place in division 14 for attendance at the state fair last September. The division consisted of Rush, Decatur, Shelby and Bartholomew counties. When the state fair awards were announced it was stated that Rush county ranked second in the state for having a large attendance.

SAY THEY ARE NOT MEMBERS OF KLAN

Three Election Inspectors Make Statement Due to Informant's Brand from Newspaper Story

Declare Articles About Removal of Inspectors Were Incorrect as Records Show None Appointed

Three election inspectors appointed by the county board of commissioners last Tuesday, who by inference might be thought to be members of the Ku Klux Klan as the result of the news story published in the Daily Republican last Wednesday, today announced that they were not now members of the Ku Klux Klan and never had been.

They were William S. McKee, precinct No. 2, Noble township; Jesse Henley, precinct No. 3, Ripley township, and W. A. Alexander, precinct No. 5, Rushville township.

The inference was based on the printed statement of the republican county chairman before the board that the commissioners were taking off every inspector who was not a klansman. The county chairman said he meant that it was apparent that the commissioners were appointing only inspectors who were klansmen, with few exceptions, in places of those he recommended.

In the list of twelve inspectors printed Wednesday, who were said to have been removed by the commissioners, appeared the name of Lewis J. Newhouse in precinct No. 2 Washington township. It should have been Ed Aiken, who should have been inspector by virtue of his office as township trustee, but who could not serve legally because his brother is a candidate on the democratic state ticket.

The members of the county board of commissioners, George Bell, Harry Gosnell and Jesse Winkler, today contended that the articles in Tuesday's and Wednesday's issues of the Republican regarding the alleged removal of inspectors were incorrect because no inspectors had never been appointed.

The contention as to whether the election inspectors were appointed at the September session of the board is based on a technicality. The commissioners say that they were not. The county auditor, Phil Wilk, understood that they were.

The permanent record of the commissioners' sessions show that they were not. Attorneys were consulted today and they say that the law provided (Continued on Page Three)

MURDERER SEEKS CLEMENCY

Harry Diamond, Sentenced to Die, Appeals to Gov. Branch

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 31—Attorneys for Harry Diamond of Laporte sentenced to die on November 14 for the murder of his wife, today appealed to Governor Branch for clemency. Appeal to the governor was taken after Diamond had lost his final fight before the supreme court to escape the electric chair.

The Supreme court denied Diamond for a stay of execution and over ruled a petition for an order instructing the Porter county court to hold an inquest as to his sanity. Attorneys for Diamond claims he became insane after his conviction and sentence.

SEPARATE TRIALS DENIED

St. Vernon, Ill., Oct. 31—Elsie Sweetin's motion for a separate trial for the arsenic murder of her husband and Anna Hight, which she and Lawrence Hight, former M. E. pastor at Ina, have confessed, today was denied by Judge Kern in circuit court here. Judge Kern set the trial of the man and woman who killed their spouse to make way for their own love, for November 17.

BOY IS RUN OVER BY DRAY

The little boy is four years old and was riding on the dray at the time of the accident. He fell underneath the back wheel of the wagon, which passed over his right leg, breaking the bone just below the knee. He was taken to Dr. E. L. Wooden's office, where the bone was set.

Republican Publicity Manager Says All G. O. P. Advertisements Contain a Signature

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 31—Democrats have spent large sums of money in advertising that do not carry the signatures of the democratic national committee, G. B. Baker, director of Publicity for the Republican National committee testified at the senate campaign "slush fund" here today.

Baker exhibited a full page advertisement from a woman's magazine, which he said cost $7,000 per issue. Baker declared that all direct advertising by the Republican committee carries the Republican signature.

Attorney Samuel Untermyer, representing Senator LaFollette, cross examined Baker in an effort to determine what part of the Republican committee played in the independent advertising campaign being carried out by republican organizations not identified with the National committee.

Charges that coercion was used by L. E. Sheppard, president of the Brotherhood of Order of railroad conductors to swing railroad men to support the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket were made by Weymouth Kirkland attorney for the Republican National committee.

The Republican campaign fund to date totals approximately $3,550,000 W. V. Hodges, national treasurer, estimated. This he said is the gross figure and includes $750,000 returned to the various state organizations for use in the senatorial and congressional campaigns and other work.

The Chicago case of the hearing adjourned at noon today subject to call probably in Washington after election.

vides for the appointment of election inspectors by the county board of commissioners at the September session of the board.

As has been the custom here for many years, the county chairman of the majority party, which in this instance is Glen Miller, republican chairman, filed his recommendations for election inspectors in the auditor's office before the September meeting of the board. In making the notes of the meeting, the auditor said registration inspectors and left out the word, "election." When the permanent record was made, the word "election" was left out, but the inspectors were copied on the permanent record from the list recommended by Mr. Miller, according to the county auditor.

It was his opinion and is now that the election inspectors were being appointed at that time. He inserted the word "election" in the record and the commissioners objected afterwards and it was erased by him, Mr. Wilk says.

The commissioners say that they did not offer to make a compromise in the case of L. A. Wagoner of Orange township, as stated in Tuesday's Republican, by placing him on as judge. He was recommended for inspector by Mr. Miller.

Another complaint of the commissioners is that by inference the impression was left that Harry Gosnell and George Bell took from the auditor's office papers which had been filed and which should properly have been filed in the auditor's office.

The Republican's information came from Mr. Wilk, the county auditor. A reporter was not present when the alleged petitions for removal of L. A. Wagoner of Orange township and Will Arnold of Washington township as election inspectors were presented, but Mr. Wilk said that when he went to make up the records following the meeting, they could not be found. He further stated that he called both Harry Gosnell and George Bell and they both said they had the petitions and would return them to the auditor's office.

The commissioners assert that twelve inspectors were not "beheaded" because none were ever legally appointed until last Tuesday.

Wednesday's issue of the Republican said that the commissioners offered to compromise with the republican county chairman. They deny this and Mr. Miller says that it was he who offered the compromise. The meeting was behind closed doors and those on the outside thought from Mr. Miller's remarks that a compromise had been offered by the board.

The commissioners declare the statement in the Republican of Wednesday that they did not deny the charge that twelve inspectors were being removed because they did not belong to the Ku Klux Klan, was false. The Republican was informed that they did not deny it on one occasion, but the commissioners say that they did deny the accusation when it was first made.

Wednesday's republican said the election laws provide the inspectors shall be appointed by the county commissioners upon recommendation of the county chairman of the party which received the most votes at the last election. This was incorrect in that the commissioners do not have to follow the recommendations of the county chairman. It has been the custom here for years, however, to follow this plan.

It was also said Wednesday that there was a list of precinct inspectors on file in the auditor's office and at the head of the list it is stated that they are appointed for registration and election. It should have said "recommended" instead of appointed. The commissioners also claim no error was made in transcribing the record because it was not intended to appoint election inspectors at the September session.

The commissioners claim that the "decapitation" of inspectors was not arranged before hand, as stated in Wednesday's paper, and that it did not take place, on the theory that they were never appointed.

The statement listing the twelve inspectors said to have been appointed in September, as having been removed, which appeared in Wednesday's Republican, is also said to be incorrect by the commissioners.

KINDLY KEEP COMING

The Truth About the Inspectors

In order to correct a false impression created by erroneous statements and published articles concerning the appointment of inspectors for the general election, the undersigned, George Bell, Harry Gosnell and Jesse Winkler, who are paying for this advertisement, desire to submit the following statement:

"In the matter of registration, the Board made appointments for registration on recommendation of county chairman as follows:

(Then follows a list of names for each of the precincts of the county.)"

The Board at its first meeting in October signed the record as above made and the attention of Phil Wilk himself, who presented the record to the Board of Commissioners, was at that time called to the fact that the appointments were for registration only.

At a meeting which was held on the 15th day of October, 1924, the question was raised about the appointment of inspectors and the Auditor stated that such appointments had been made and upon the record being produced it was found that the record had been altered subsequent to the signing of the record as follows: The word "registration" in the line "In the matter of registration" had been marked through and above it had been written, in ink, the word "election." The word "registration" in the sentence, "The Board made appointments for registration on recommendation," etc., had two lines drawn through it and above it had been written, in ink, "inspector election."

Mr. Phil Wilk was openly accused by the Board of having changed the record without authorization and was again informed that it was not the intention of the Board to appoint all the men named as inspectors of election, and thereupon Mr. Wilk erased from the record, in the presence of the Board, the words which he had illegally and without right inserted.

As no inspectors had been appointed at the September Term by the Board of Commissioners, and the law provides that one week prior to the time of the general election all vacancies in list of inspectors shall be filled by the Board, this day was on the 28th of October, 1924, and was the day on which inspectors were appointed.

In The Daily Republican, in a published article, dated Tuesday, October 28th, 1924, it is stated that certain petitions could not be found and the impression is left that Harry Gosnell and George Bell each had taken papers from the office of the County Auditor, which should be there on file. It is true that Mr. Gosnell presented a paper containing objections to the appointment of one of the inspectors and George Bell also presented written objections to the appointment of another inspector, and in each case the County Auditor refused to receive the papers for filing and threw them back respectively to Mr. Gosnell and Mr. Bell, and told each of them that he would not receive them. Such papers were never filed with the Auditor and when it was learned at the meeting on the afternoon of the 15th of October, 1924, that the inspectors could not be appointed until the 28th day of October, 1924, and the Auditor having refused to file them, these objections were taken away by each of these men. If the papers had been filed they would have been left on file with the County Auditor and any imputation that either of these men was taking away or destroying papers which should be on file in the Auditor's office is false and slanderous.

On the first day of September, 1924, at the September Term of the Board of Commissioners, Phil Wilk, Auditor of Rush County, presented to the Board what was explained to be a recommendation for appointment of inspectors of registration. The Board did not see and examine the paper itself. The Board took action as shown by the following record:

It is further stated in the article of October 28th, in The Daily Republican, that the Republican County Chairman, in substance recommended the appointment of the inspectors "as he was entitled to do under the law." Such is not the law as there is no provision of the law whatever that entitles any county chairman to recommend to the Board of County Commissioners who shall be appointed as inspectors, nor is there any provision for a man appearing before the Board of County Commissioners with his attorney and insisting that he should be named as an inspector by the Board or reasons given by the Board as to why he should not be so named.

It is further stated in The Daily Republican, under date of October 28th, that "The County Auditor produced the original copy of the list of the names of men recommended by the Republican County Chairman, to act as inspectors in the 'registration and election.' In making up the record the Auditor's clerk neglected to follow the petition closely and put in the word 'election' but the original petition, etc." It is not true that the Auditor's clerk neglected in making up her record to put in the word "election" for as has been shown above the word "election" nowhere appeared in the record as originally made and only appeared when it had been written in by Mr. Wilk himself without any authority whatever after the record had been signed.

In The Daily Republican of the issue of Wednesday, October 29th, appears the caption:

"Twelve Inspectors are Beheaded--Decapitation takes place at county commissioners' meeting despite protests of many"

This heading is misleading and does not state the truth for the reason that no inspector was removed as no inspectors were appointed until the 28th day of October, 1924, and no change has been made in the list then named. There were very few present who protested against any man selected by the Board and among them were those whom it had been rumored were not supporting but actively opposing certain of the Republican Ticket, and those who threatened George Bell that if he did not make the appointments it would lose him five hundred votes.

It is stated in the article of Wednesday, October 29th, that "The Board of Commissioners called Glen Miller into closed session and offered to compromise but that he refused." Such statement is absolutely false as there was no offer of compromise on the part of the Board of County Commissioners, there being nothing to compromise and Mr. Miller was called in merely to see if he had any objections to any of the men proposed to be appointed by the Board and made no objections to any men suggested. Mr. Miller did say to the Board at the morning meeting that he would like to compromise as it would put him in bad if recommendations were not carried out.

It is further stated in the article of The Daily Republican, of Wednesday, October 29th, 1924, that, "the election laws provide that the inspectors shall be appointed by the County Commissioners upon recommendation of the County Chairman of the party which received the most votes at the last election." Such is not the law as has been shown, there being no provision for the recommendation of anyone being received by the Board of County Commissioners in the appointment of inspectors of general election.

It is further stated in the article in The Daily Republican, on Wednesday, October 29th, 1924, as follows:

"There is on file in the Auditor's Office a list of precinct inspectors and at the head of the list it is stated that they are appointed for registration and election." There is no such appointment on record as the appointments could only be made by the Board of County Commissioners and were never made and all that appears anywhere of record is a paper which purports to be a recommendation of Glen Miller for the appointment of inspectors for registration and election, and which, as late as October 30th, 1924, had no file mark on it.

It is further stated in the same article that "Those who were removed by the Commissioners after having been appointed for registration and election at the September Session are as follows: (Then follows a list of names.)" As it has been shown there could be no removal of anyone as there had been no appointment.

Safe steps—The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way. Psalm 37: 23.

Prayer—O God, Thou only art good. Do Thou enable us to live by faith, and then Thy goodness will extend to us, and our way by Thy way.

The Daily Republican has been complimented by many people and congratulated from many sources for sponsoring the appearance of the United States Marine band in Rushville.

Although appreciating that it was a big undertaking, the Republican felt obligated, as a disseminator of news and as a newspaper which stands for the best interests of the county and the highest standards of music, to guarantee the two concerts by the band, even though there was prospect of a loss.

Though a failure financially, the band concerts were a splendid success from a cultural standpoint. Scores of people have sent word to the Daily Republican that they appreciated very much the opportunity of hearing the band and that they regarded it a service to the community to provide music of this character for the people, especially the school children, to hear.

The Daily Republican is under everlasting obligation to the women who, as members of the Rush County Child Welfare association, worked untiringly to make the concerts a financial success by canvassing the county to sell tickets. Likewise, the Boy Scouts worked diligently in the sale of tickets, with the hopes of realizing something for their organization.

It is a source of deep regret on the part of the Republican that not enough tickets were sold to leave a balance for these two organizations. They entered into the project with the hope of making something for their work and very naturally they will be disappointed.

The fact that the Republican will have to stand a loss of about $500, not taking into account the advertising that was done in this newspaper, is not of as much moment as the fact that the worthy charitable organization and the Scouts will not realize anything as the fruits of their labor.

There is great satisfaction to be found, however, even in spite of the discouraging outcome, that many people appreciated the effort that was made by the Daily Republican and these two organizations to offer the people of Rush county something worth while.

Capt. William H. Santelmann, director of the band, complimented the agencies back of the project very highly, and said that the attempt to bring an attraction of this magnitude to a city this size was deserving of great praise.

He stated that within his memory, the appearance of the band had never but once before been sponsored by a newspaper. The only other instance on record was in New York City when The World was the sponsor at the dedication of an immense bandstand, and the Marine band played. The audience at that time numbered 45,000 people. Furthermore, Capt. Santelmann said that Rushville was the smallest city in which the band had appeared on its present tour.

Brookhart's Defection

Senator Brookhart has bolted the Republican party and gone over to the side of LaFollette. His antagonism to Gen. Dawes is given as a reason. Why this change so late in the campaign? The records of both Coolidge and Dawes have been open books, and long before either was nominated the people knew exactly on what sort of a platform he would stand. There have been no new developments respecting either of the men. Both have emphasized well known Republican principles and dwelt on the achievements of the Republican administration. By no act or word of Gen. Dawes has the public been given any reason for altering its first impression of the man. The real excuse for the Brookhart defection must be found in the unsound doctrines advocated by the LaFollette forces, for which the Senator has always exhibited a marked sympathy.

But the loss of Brookhart to the Republican cause is fully compensated by the thousands of conservative Democrats who have rallied to Coolidge. The willingness of Davis to stultify himself for political ends is apparent. In accepting the astonishing testimony before the Senate committees as proof of dishonesty in Republican circles, he outraged his own sense of decency and value of evidence. In personally naming Mr. Bryan as his running mate, he offended his own ideas of sound government and alienated many thousands of voters who would have supported him had the vice presidential nominee been a man of his own reputed character. In the manifest play of the Davis managers to throw the election into the House and into control of the radical balance of power in Congress, every conservative voter is challenged. He must decide between Coolidge and common sense on the one hand and dictation by LaFollette on the other.

It Makes a Difference

It is not uncommon for people to remark that "it makes no difference what others think."

But it does make a difference—a big difference.

A community is a collection of people.

This country is a collection of cities, towns, villages and surrounding countryside.

This country is nothing more than a collection of sovereign states welded together in a single and central government for their own protection and advancement.

The government is despondent upon the states, the states are dependent upon their cities, towns and rural sections, and all of these divisions are dependent upon the people, in whose hands rests the future of them all.

So it does make a difference what others think, because upon their thoughts, which is the basis for their actions, depends whatever course the nation will take.

If you and the "other people" think constructively and always have in mind the interests of your community, you will be better citizens, which is the only way the local community, the state and the nation can keep on advancing.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

WASHINGTON—Pennybanks to establish her right to the title of the "Keystone State" by the testimony of her business men who supported her in the Brookhart campaign found herself outwitted.

The statement that business men of eastern Pennsylvania alone had chipped in $245,000 to the G. O. P. war chest prior to Oct. 15, or one-fifth the sum Chairman Butler said had been received by the Republican National Committee to that date, revealed this rich-rabbed Republican commonwealth as the biggest real support of the party's campaign structure.

A study of how Pennsylvania Republicans handle their campaign financial job, however, soon shows the reason for their success.

Financing the party's campaign is more than a political matter to them. It is a business matter. So the job is handled, not by politicians, but by business men, operating on a systematic business basis.

Instead of an array of political henchmen, whose first interest is in politics, the parade of witnesses from Pennsylvania consisted exclusively of business men who for business reasons want the Republican regime continued and who set about in a business-like way to help accomplish that result.

Take Joseph E. Grundy, in charge of Republican collection activities outside Pennsylvania's "Pittsburgh District."

Grundy runs a big wool carding and yarn spinning business at Bristol, Pa. The "turnover" of his business last year was some $5,000,000.

When he set about the raising of campaign funds, he went after it just as he would have gone after more profits for his own business. He didn't go out and demand money. He didn't try the usual political hold-up game. Instead, he put on a systematic "selling campaign."

If he could sell his wares, convince the buyers that his Republican line of goods was all-wool and a part with, he felt as sure that the cash would follow as that a politician would secure a vote for his own party's cause.

So through a series of selling letters, extending the limits of Republican protection, one after another and general G. O. P. dependability, he built up, in a straight business way, a personal market for his political ticket.

When this had been done, and now that he had done the cash job, he went after the general business community in his politics as to merchandise.

After Grundy's "selling" letters, persons who were asked to come across didn't consider that they were being asked to dig up something for nothing, but that they were buying a very definite and tangibly valuable article for their money—four years more of the public's "good times," protective tariffs and "safety."

GRUNDY on the witness stand typified prosperity and success. Pennsylvania, apparently, was his business property.

To question him by Senator Caraway as to the extent his business and other financial obligations in his state had benefited by special tariff provisions enacted by the G. O. P. he returned soft-voiced, pleasant answers.

Yes, he had long been interested in tariff legislation. He had made many trips to Washington in the past 30 years in connection with tariff schedules, particularly tariffs on wool and woolsens. Yes, these tariffs had been a big help; they had brought employment and good wages to thousands of textile workers and hundreds of mill towns.

Similarly, the testimony of Nathan Fairwell, who "took care of the weavers by taking money away from them," as Caraway put it; of Vancleave, Statesbury, Attlebury and other Pennsylvania "big business" men all revealed that in the Keystone State politics is no mere business for politicians but a live and active field for real business men.

CARTHAGE GYM TO BE DEDICATED

High School Expected to Entertain Largest Crowd in Its History at Opening Tonight

MILROY TO BE OPPONENT

Rushville Schedule to Play up There January 2—Other Games on Carthage Schedule

There will be a big time in Carthage tonight. The new high school gymnasium, regarded as the best of its kind in Rush county, will be dedicated with a basketball game between the Carthage and Milroy high schools.

The new gymnasium is a part of the new high school annex that was built during the past season. It has a seating capacity of fifteen hundred, and a playing floor that cannot be equalled in Rush county.

Carthage is expecting to entertain the largest crowd at a basketball game in its history, when the doors are thrown open tonight, as it will also afford an opportunity for people to inspect the place.

The Carthage prospects this year are for a winning team, and with the new gym, it will mean much encouragement. The schedule has been completed, and Rushville is found twice on their card, with one game at Carthage and one here.

Edwin B. Heifner is coach of the team this year. He is a former Muncie state normal player. He has two regulars from last year, Renegar at back guard and Siler who will play floor guard. Yetric is a new man at center, and the likely forwards will be Heim, Alexander and Pierson. The reserve material is very light.

The complete schedule for Carthage is as follows:

- Oct. 31—With Milroy
- Nov. 7—With Arlington
- Nov. 14—At Spiceland
- Nov. 21—At Manila
- Nov. 26—With Spiceland
- Nov. 29—At Morristown
- Dec. 12—At Cumberland
- Dec. 13—At Moscow
- Dec. 19—With Raleigh
- Jan. 2—With Rushville
- Jan. 16—Carthage tourney
- Jan. 16—With Milroy
- Jan. 23—At Knightstown
- Jan. 30-31—County tourney, Rushville
- Feb. 6—With Manila
- Feb. 7—At Arlington
- Feb. 13—With Moscow
- Feb. 14—With Knightstown
- Feb. 20—At Rushville
- Feb. 27—With Morristown

Princeton—The varsity continued their drill in various methods of stopping the Harvard attack as displayed in the Crimson's game with Dartmouth. Ted Williams ran the team in a long signal drill and will probably pilot the varsity in tomorrow's game with Swarthmore.

Cambridge—Harvard held no practice yesterday, the men all attending the funeral services of Percy Haughton. Second string men will be used against Boston U tomorrow.

L. U. PRACTICES ON OPPONENTS FIELD

Limbers up and Runs Through Signals on Northwestern Field For The Game Saturday

TEAM SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Better Punting by the Backs Shows Advancement of About 45 Yards in the Practices

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 31—A short signal practice and limbering up drill on the Northwestern field at Evanston this afternoon completed Coach Ingram's preparations of the Indiana University football squad for the game with Northwestern tomorrow. Both teams have suffered defeat in their only Western Conference contests this season and will be fighting to get out of the cellar position.

A special car containing the Indiana players, accompanied by the coaches, managers and trainers, left Bloomington at midnight Thursday for Evanston. Student rooters will follow the gridirers by rail and auto this afternoon and tonight.

Better punting by the backs, Coach Ingram expects to bolster up that department of the game which was noticeably weak in the Chicago game. Marks and Abel have each been averaging 45 yards in their practice kicks while Salmi and Ruman have been consistently kicking 50 yards.

Captain Joe Sloate may be in the starting lineup tomorrow, as his work in the scrimmages with the freshmen eleven this past week has been of an excellent nature. If Sloate is started the backfield likely will consist of Lorber, Marks and Salmi in addition. This will leave Stevens, Zivich, Ruman and Abel as the second string backfield with Moomaw, Smith and Tobin also in reserve.

Purcha and Sibley are slated to start on the two end positions with Ninness and George Fisher filling the two tackle berths. Coach Ingram will have as reliable substitutes for the wing positions: Woodward, Nesel, Scott, Fisher and Cushman. Carstens and McCool likely will get the first call at the tackle positions; Springer and Bernoske will start at the guard positions with Wilson and Walver Fisher capable reserves. Stew Butler will fill the pivot position for the Hoosiers with Dykhuizen and Kelso as reserve centers.

Members of the freshmen squad will spend Saturday acquainting themselves with Ohio plays and formations to use against the varsity in scrimmage next week. The Crimson regulars will leave for Columbus for the Ohio State game next Friday morning.

CHANGES IN RULES WILL BE APPARENT

Fans Urged Not to be Hasty in Criticizing Officials in Opening Game Tonight

A NEW TECHNICAL FOUL

No Limit Put on Number of Over-time Periods to Settle Tie—Rule on Tie Ball

Several changes in the basketball rules will be noticeable tonight when the Rushville high school takes on Hopewell for the opening game of the season here, and basketball fans are urged to remember that the officials are acquainted with the rules, and should not be too hasty in passing judgment.

The officials for the game tonight will be Parker acting as referee and Morrison on the side lines acting as umpire. The selection of the positions that the officials should occupy was made by the visiting team.

Among the new rules this year is a technical foul for a player to touch the ball as it goes up between two players. In the past the game was frequently delayed by a player striking the ball as it went up, and under the new rules the player will be fouled.

Another new rule is that in case of a tie at the end of the regular session, the tie must be played off in overtime periods. The old rule limited the overtime periods to two five minute sessions, but most schools in Indiana always played off the game regardless of the number, so this rule will not materially affect the rules.

The rule concerning personal contact among players also will be enforced this year, according to a suggestion made by the I. H. S. A. A. In the past some referees have neglected to call a tie ball or foul when two players have body contact with each other. Guarding from the rear is also a foul.

Another rule this year that will probably meet the approval of fans is the one pertaining to a tie ball. The ball must be held firmly by two or more players before the officials can call it a tie ball for a toss up. This rule will eliminate much of the whistle blowing by referees who stop the play many times when two players get close together. Under this rule, the two players must actually have possession of the ball. The change in rules will give the players a chance to keep the ball moving.

Another change pertains to a substitute who is placed in the game. The new rule sets out that the substitute must not only be sent in, but he also must actually play after being sent into the game.

This rule in the past has been used by a coach to take out a valuable player for two minutes to give him coaching, and before the two minutes were up send the regular back in, and all the time the team had been taking time out.

The change will make it necessary for the substitute to start the play, and then if the coach wants to send the regular back in, it will be necessary for the team to call time out again, thus charging two time out periods against the team, instead of the one time out, as in the past.

The rule also says this year that the players shall have numbers on the back of their jerseys, and these numbers must be at least 6 inches high, and made of material at least an inch wide.

There is another rule regarding the dribble. If a player has possession of the ball, and spins around on one foot, he either has to start dribbling or else pass it. If he starts to dribble, he must do so before taking a step. If he wishes to pass the ball to another player, he is allowed to take the customary one step with the other foot.

Hopewell will be here tonight at 7:30, according to advance word, and the game will be started between 8:15 and 8:30.

Urbana—"Red" Grange has a cold. Wallie Melvain has a broken hand. Despite these circumstances, which might cramp "Red's" style with his interference man out, the Illini were confident today that Iowa will fall.

South Bend—With several regulars still handicapped by injuries, coach Roekne abandoned heavy work for the squad yesterday to give the various members of the team a chance to return to normalcy before stacking up against Georgia Tech.

Saturday Big Day on Gridiron

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Oct. 31—With all the interesting and exciting preliminary formalities ended last week, the football season will get into heavy action tomorrow with a schedule filled with a host of banner attractions. With the exception of a very few games, where varsity teams are taking a rest before a severe test next week, every game on the schedule rates as a feature attraction. Hundreds of thousands of fans will fill to capacity all the great stadiums of the country.

Ranking as the feature game of the schedule because of its spectacular trimmings and its promise of a hard, if not perfect football, is the Army-Yale game at New Haven. For the third time the game will fill the huge Yankee bowl to its capacity of 75,000. The demand for tickets was so great that all the tickets were sold more than two weeks ago and none were offered to the public.

After visiting the West, seeing Western football and hearing Western football fans, it seems a waste of words to say that all the good games will not be played in the East tomorrow. From a Western angle it would be more to the point to say that a few good games are to be played in the East.

As a matter of fact the West tomorrow has all the bulk of the games with intersectional flavor and with neighborhood importance.

Two big intersectional games are on the card. Georgia Tech, one of the leading standard bearers of the South, comes to South Bend to meet Notre Dame and repay the visit that Notre Dame paid last year. Relations have always been so cordial between these two teams that they have become almost permanent fixtures on their schedules. There are some reasons why the Notre Dame team should not be popular in Atlanta and it is a tribute to the sportsmanship that football develops not only among the players but among the spectators that the relations of these two teams have always been so friendly.

Another intersectional contest that has become rather regular will be played in Detroit when Washington and Jefferson, one of the leading teams of the East, plays the University of Detroit.

Two very important games will feature the "Big Ten" competition. Michigan plays Minnesota at Minneapolis, and Illinois meets Iowa at Urbana.

Chicago meets Purdue in another interesting game, if not as important. Ohio State has a breather game against Wooster and Wisconsin getting ready for the Notre Dame game next week, has an off-day.

Nebraska's game against Missouri will feature the Missouri Valley schedule. Kansas plays Washington at St. Louis.

With Georgia Tech away from home fields the big Southern games will be between Vanderbilt and Auburn at Nashville and between Alabama and Mississippi at Montgomery.

California, and Southern California will play the big game of the Pacific Coast conference at Berkeley, Stanford is idle.

TOURNEY FOR BOXERS WILL BE HELD SOON

Six Nominated so Far to Participate in Event to Decide Successor to Dundee

AS THE NATIONAL CHAMP

New York, Oct. 31—Six leading American featherweights have been nominated by the New York boxing commission to compete in an elimination tournament to decide the winner of the world's championship which was vacated by Johnny Dundee, who resigned because he could no longer make the weight.

The selections of the commission were: Louis Kaplan, Mesiden, Conn.; Danny Kramer, Philadelphia, Lew Paulse, Salt Lake City, Jose Lombardo, Panama; Mike Dundee, Rock Island, Ill.; and Bobby Garcia, Camp Holabird, Md.

The commission proposed that the boxers be paired by a drawing out of a hat and that the first series be held in Madison Square Garden on November 21.

The commission also announced that the lightweight elimination to determine a challenger for Benny Leonard has been temporarily abandoned as no promoter could be found to put on the series.

ALONG SIDELINES

Evanston—"Navy Bill" Ingram was to lead his Indiana football team to the Purple gridiron today for a light workout preceding Northwestern's signal drill late today in preparation for the meeting of the two teams tomorrow.

Chicago—Defensive practice, especially aerial drill comprised final Maroon intensive preparations for Purdue.

Lafayette—Twenty-four football players and two cripples entrained today for Chicago where the Boiler-makers clash tomorrow in the annual contest with the Maroons. Bahr and Bolan were the cripples but Coach Phelan took them along.

Columbus—The length of the drill made up for what Ohio's practice session lacked in hard work, and Coach Wilce, was satisfied the team was in top shape for Wooster tomorrow.

Minneapolis—Michigan and Minnesota both were to run through light signal drill here today. Michigan brought its traditional luck-piece—a rejuvenated Wisconsin team—the little brown jug—when it arrived last night.

Madison—With several regulars still out and radical shifts in the lineup completed, Coach Ryan drove through a grueling practice in preparation for the Notre Dame tilt November 8. Captain Harris played at right tackle.

Cod Liver Oil Full of Vitamines MAKES WEAK FOLKS STRONG

Everybody knows that nasty-tasting, evil-smelling Cod Liver Oil is chock full of Vitamines and is a wonderful flesh producer and strength creator.

But who wants to swallow the horrible stuff when these wonderful tablets—McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets—are just as good and so easy to take.

A box of 60 tablets for 60 cents—and if any thin man or woman don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days—money back. Ask F. B. Johnson Co., and Pitman & Wilson or any good druggist anywhere.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."—Advertisement

Grocer Thankful

"I had been sick nearly 20 years with stomach trouble and was slowly starving to death as everything I ate caused terrible gas and pain and my food did not digest. I was reduced to 115 pounds. A friend advised me to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy about 4 months ago, which I did and now weigh 151 lbs and can eat anything. I am very thankful for Mayr's Wonderful Remedy." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.
